ARTICLE IV

MEMBERS

The members of this Association shall consist of all of the owners of property located in The Landings which is subject to assessment, which property is more particularly described and defined in the aforementioned Declaration of Maintenance Covenants to be recorded in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida. There shall be three classes of such members, as follows:

A. Class A Members. Class A members shall be all owners of condominium units in The Landings and, also, all owners of lots or other parcels of property which are located in an area where membership in a property owners' association is required. Class A members shall be represented in all matters concerning the Association by a representative of the condominium association or neighborhood property owners' association to which they belong. Owners of all such property shall automatically become Class A members upon acquiring the fee simple title to said property.

B. Class B Members. Class B members shall be all property owners in The Landings other than condominium unit owners or owners of lots or other parcels of property which are located in an area where membership in a property owners' association is required (i.e., Class A members) and other than Class C members. Owners of all such property shall automatically become Class B members upon acquisition of the fee simple title to such property.

C. Class C Members. Class C members shall be all owners of the property within The Landings zoned for commercial and professional and business office uses, which property is more particularly described in Exhibit "C" to the aforementioned Declaration of Maintenance Covenants. Owners of such property shall automatically become Class C members upon acquisition of the fee simple title to such property. Class C members shall be limited members in the Association, having the right to vote only on the subject matter of maintenance of part of the two private roads providing access to The Landings from U.S. Highway 41, such part being designated as "Tract C" and "Tract D" on the subdivision plat of "The Landings - Unit One" which is to be recorded in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida. The obligation of the Class C members for Association expenses shall be limited to contribution toward the maintenance of said "Tract C" and "Tract D." The manner in which the Class C members may exercise their vote and the extent to which the Class C members shall be liable for Association expenses is set forth in the aforesaid Declaration of Maintenance Covenants.

Membership of any Class A, Class B, or Class C member in the Association shall automatically terminate upon conveyance or other divestment of title to such member's unit, lot or parcel, except that nothing herein contained shall be construed as terminating the membership of any member who may own two or more units, lots or parcels in The Landings so long as at least one unit, lot or parcel is owned by such member.

The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to the unit, lot or parcel which is the basis of his membership in the Association.

ARTICLE V

VOTING

A. Subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, each Class A and Class B member of the Association shall have one (1) vote for each "assessment share" (as such term is defined in the aforesaid Declaration of Maintenance Covenants) attributed to property owned by such member; provided, however, that in the event of multiple ownership of any property, the member-owners thereof together, and not individually, shall be entitled to said one (1) vote for each such "assessment share." Except as may be otherwise provided herein, Class A and Class B members shall vote as a combined class so that no matter shall require the separate approval of the Class A and Class B members.

B. Inasmuch as the voting rights of the Class C members are limited to matters affecting the maintenance of the aforesaid "Tract C" and "Tract D," the number of votes to which each Class C member is entitled and the manner in which such voting rights may be exercised are set forth in and controlled by the terms of said Declaration of Maintenance Covenants.

C. Class A members shall be represented in this Association solely and exclusively by the condominium association or neighborhood property owners' association to which they belong, through the president of their respective association or through such other representative as their association's board of directors may appoint. Each condominium association and neighborhood property owners' association in The Landings shall represent its members with respect to all Association matters and shall have that number of votes to cast corresponding to the total number of votes held by its individual members according to the provisions of Article V, Paragraph A, above, and Article VI, Paragraph C, below. All notices and other official communications from the Association to the condominium and neighborhood property owners' associations shall be to their respective presidents or other designated representatives. Only the presidents or other designated representatives shall have the right to cast votes and otherwise participate in membership meetings of the Association, although any member shall have the right to attend such meetings.

D. Class B and Class C members may represent themselves at all membership meetings of the Association. The vote attributable to any unit, lot or parcel owned by multiple owners may be cast by any of such owners; provided, however, that if more than one of the multiple owners attempts to cast the vote to which their unit, lot or parcel is entitled, said vote shall be apportioned equally among such of the multiple owners as cast the vote.

E. The Secretary of the Association shall maintain a list of the members of the Association and the number of votes to which each member is entitled as determined in the manner set forth in Article V, Paragraph A, above. Whenever any person or entity becomes entitled to membership in the Association, it shall become such party's duty and obligation to so inform the Secretary in writing, giving his name, address and legal description of such unit, lot or parcel; provided, however, that any notice given to or vote accepted from the prior owner of such unit, lot or parcel before receipt of written notification of change of ownership shall be deemed to be properly given or received. The Secretary may, but shall not be required to, search the Public Records of Sarasota County or make other inquiry to determine the status and correctness of the list of members of the Association maintained by him and shall be entitled to rely upon the Association's records until notified in writing of any change in ownership.

F. The owners of any property subject to the terms and provisions of the aforesaid Declaration of Maintenance Covenants, but not subject to the annual maintenance assessments set forth therein, shall be non-voting members of the Association. Such non-voting members may attend, but shall not be entitled to participate at or receive notice of, meetings of members of the Association.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting initially of three (3) Directors. The number of Directors comprising succeeding Boards of Directors shall be as provided from time to time in the Bylaws of the Association, but in no event shall there be less than three (3) or more than nine (9) Directors. The Directors may, but need not be, members of the Association and need not be residents of the State of Florida.

B. All Directors shall be appointed by and shall serve at the pleasure of The Landings Development Company, a Florida corporation, its successors or assigns, (hereinafter referred to as "Developer") until the annual meeting of members in the first fiscal year of the Association for which assessments are levied against the members. Commencing with said annual meeting and continuing thereafter until the annual meeting of members in the year 1999, Developer shall have the right to appoint a majority of the Board of Directors. Commencing with said 1999 annual meeting of members and continuing for as long as Developer owns any property in The Landings, Developer shall have the right to appoint one (1) Director.

C. All Directors who are not subject to appointment by Developer shall be elected by the combined vote of the Class A and Class B members. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, at all elections of directors voting shall be cumulative, so that there shall be attributed to each unit, lot or parcel a number of votes equal to (a) the number of votes to which such unit, lot or parcel is entitled under the provisions of Paragraph A of Article V above, multiplied by (b) the number of Directors then to be elected. The total number of votes thus produced for each unit, lot or parcel may be cast entirely for one candidate or distributed among two or more candidates as the person casting such votes may prefer. Elections shall be by plurali . . . votes.

D. All Directors, whether appointed or elected, shall serve for terms of one (1) year in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws. Any elected Director may be removed from office with or without cause by majority vote of the Class A and Class B members but not otherwise. Similarly, in no event may a Board member appointed by Developer be removed except by action of Developer.

E. The names and addresses of the members of the first Board of Directors who shall hold office until the first annual meeting of members to be held in the year 1961 and until their successors are elected or appointed and have qualified, are as follows:

The officers of the Association, to be elected by the Board of Directors, shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board shall deem appropriate from time to time. The President shall be elected from among the membership of the Board of Directors, but no other officer need be a Director. The same person may hold two or more offices, provided, however, that the office of President and Secretary (or Assistant Secretary) shall not be held by the same person. The affairs of the Association shall be administered by such officers under the direction of the Board of Directors. Officers shall be elected for a term of one (1) year in accordance with the procedure set forth in the Bylaws.

B. The Board of Directors, or the President with the approval of the Board of Directors, may employ personnel to conduct the affairs of the Association and any such person or legal entity may be so employed without regard to whether such person or entity is a member of the Association or a Director or officer of the Association, as the case may be.

C. The names of the officers who are to manage the affairs of the Association until the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors to be held in the year 1981 and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, are as follows:

ARTICLE XV

DISSOLUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION

A. Upon expiration of the term of the aforementioned Declaration of Maintenance Covenants, the Association may be dissolved upon a resolution to that effect being approved by two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board of Directors, and, if a judicial decree is necessary at the time of dissolution, then after receipt of an appropriate decree as provided for in Section §17.05, Florida Statutes (1979), or any statute of similar import then in effect.

B. Upon dissolution of the Association, all of its assets remaining after provision for payment of creditors and all costs and expenses of such dissolution shall be distributed in the following manner:
